

HERE ARE TWO OF THE MOST FAMOUS VERSES IN THE NT:

Mark 16:15

'Jesus said to his followers,
"Go everywhere in the world,
and tell the Good News to everyone.'"

and Matthew 28:19

'Jesus came to His Disciples and said...
"go and make disciples in all countries.'"

HOW ARE THEY USUALLY KNOWN?

Mark 16:15

'Jesus said to his followers,
"Go everywhere in the world,
and tell the Good News to everyone.'"

and Matthew 28:19

'Jesus came to His Disciples and said...
"go and make disciples in all countries.'"

'The Great Commission'

So, what is a 'disciple'?

*“A disciple is an active learner,
follower, and imitator
who accepts the teachings of a leader and tries to live by them.”*

God Himself is a 'Missionary God!'

For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through Him.'
(John 3:16-17)

In 1 Peter 4:10
we are told that:

You should use it faithfully.”

In 1 Peter 4:10
we are told that:

Nowadays, because of technical developments unknown in Biblical times
-- e.g . the ‘common grace’ gifts of computers and the internet
we can do much to ‘Help Hungarians’
without going to them in person:

WE MAY CALL THIS

BÁLINT IBOLYA

During the western Romanian spiritual revival of the late 19th Century, Ibolya chose at a young age to follow Jesus Christ, a decision that was to shape her entire life. Leaving behind her career as an economist, she served for a long time as a pastor's wife among several Hungarian-speaking congregations in Transylvania. She currently lives with her husband, Pál, as a retiree. But for more than 30 years she has been working with the Friends' Mission Service in Romanian prisons. Together with her colleagues, she provides spiritual care for women prisoners – organising worship services and leading Bible studies for them. She strives to lead them to faith, and mentor them, easing their circumstances through love, friendship, and practical help. She firmly believes that if God has opened normally-closed prison gates for her to go through, then she must do so and share the Gospel of God's redeeming grace with as many women 'inside' as possible.

HOW CAN A PERSON END UP BEHIND BARS?

People end up in prison in one of two ways. Most often, they are 'caught in the act' of something wrong, handcuffed and taken against their will. But there are others who go there willingly to proclaim the good news of the Gospel. To them, the Biblical promise is: "I will go before you, I will level the rough places, I will break in pieces the doors of bronze and cut through the bars of iron. I will give you the treasures of darkness and the hidden riches."

In this book, some of these 'treasures of darkness' will be introduced, sensitive-hearted, sorrowful women. Often they are unwanted by anyone, as they have been convicted and branded for life. The good news is that they are, nevertheless, loved and needed by God, our Creator Father, who eagerly awaits them as prodigals, to transform them and gift them with new life and new opportunity.

Freedom is a precious treasure. Yet, it happens that even many free women live in captivity to their desires, languishing in prisons of their own making. And there is always the fear that due to an unexpected situation, an outburst of anger, or a moment of intoxication, they too will do something that will result in incarceration.

This book can help deter people from such dangers and help women to live lovely lives. And if some find themselves behind bars, it can encourage them to know that 'underneath are God's everlasting arms' and there is no depth from which He cannot deliver them.

'4H'

We are grateful to God that the Age of Grace is continuing and the Gospel can reach even those people temporarily in prisons. We rejoice when, in response to the message of the Cross, people are freed from the devil's captivity. May this book be an encouragement to all those women who have chosen the Lord and who, with great love and self-sacrifice, take the good news to those still enchained by evil. May the Lord Jesus Christ set free every sister from sin!

KISS JUDIT, President of Hungarian Baptist Women in Romania.

GIVING

In 2 Corinthians 8:1-13

And now, brothers and sisters, we want you to know about the grace that God has given the Macedonian churches.

In the midst of a very severe trial, their overflowing joy and their extreme poverty welled up in rich generosity.

For I testify that they gave as much as they were able, and even beyond their ability.

Entirely on their own, they urgently pleaded with us for the privilege of sharing in this service to the Lord's people.

In 2 Corinthians 8:1-13

And they exceeded our expectations:
they gave themselves first of all to the Lord,
and then by the will of God also to us...

... Our desire is not that others might be relieved while you are hard pressed,
but that there might be EQUALITY.

At the present time your plenty will supply what they need, so that in turn their plenty will supply what you need.

The goal is equality, as it is written:

*“The one who gathered much did not have too much,
and the one who gathered little did not have too little.”*

Financially the Hungarian Church needs our help...

- Because Hungarian incomes are about half those in the UK...
- ...whilst the cost of living is similar to here...
- ...and other missions mostly avoid 'Greater Hungary' because the language is:
“The most difficult for English speakers to learn.” (Berlitz)
